In the event the Managers decide, in their discretion, that the Company requires additional capital, the Managers shall have the right to issue up three additional Class A Interests at any time. The Initial Closing must take place on or before June 30, 2006 (the "Initial Closing Date") or the offering will terminate, all subscription funds will be returned to the investors with interest and without deduction, and all subscriptions will be canceled. If the number of Class A Interests accepted at the Initial Closing is less than six Class A Interests, Pine Hill shall enter into a bridge loan agreement with the Company pursuant to which it shall advance the Bridge Loan to the Company in the amount of up to $320,000 as required to fund development and production of the Film. No Member shall be required or obligated (a) to contribute any capital to the Company other than as provided in Section 5.01 or 5.02 hereof, or (b) to lend any funds to the Company (except for Pine Hill's obligation to provide the Bridge Loan). Any interest earned on subscriptions deposited in the account shall be deemed to be income earned by the Company and shall not be deemed a Capital Contribution and, except as otherwise provided herein, no Member may withdraw his, her, or its, Capital Contribution. None of the terms, covenants, obligations or rights contained in this Section is or shall be deemed to be for the benefit of any person or entity other than the Members and the Company, and no such third person shall under any circumstances have any right to compel any actions or payments by the Managers and/or the Members. ALLOCATIONS, DISTRIBUTIONS, ELECTIONS, AND REPORTS

6.01 Allocations of Income or Losses from Operations. Income and losses from operations of the Company shall be allocated to Class A Members and the Class B Members in accordance .

6.02 Allocations of Income or Loss from the Sale of Substantially all of the Assets of the Company.

(a) Income or gain (but not losses) from the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company shall be allocated as follows:

(i) To the extent that the Capital Accounts of the Class A Members are negative, income or gain shall first be allocated to the Class A Members until the Capital Accounts of the Class A Members (after giving effect to any allocation of gains pursuant to this Section) equals zero;

(ii) Next, to the extent the Class B Members have a negative balance in its Capital Account, income or gain shall next be allocated to the Class B Members until the Capital Account of the Class B Members (after giving effect to any allocation of gains pursuant to this Section) equals zero;

(iii) Next, any income or gain shall then be allocated to the Class A Members in amounts that shall cause the Capital Accounts of Class A Members to equal $70,000 per Class A Interest less all prior distributions made or credited to Class A Members (but not less than zero);

(iv) Next, any income or gain shall then be allocated to the Class B Members in amounts that shall cause the Capital Accounts of Class A Members to equal the capital contributions of the Class B members less all prior distributions made or credited to Class B Members (but not less than zero);

(v) The balance of any income or gain shall then be allocated to the Class A Members and Class B Members in amounts that shall cause the Capital Accounts of all the Class A Members to equal 50% of the total Capital Accounts of all Members after such allocations and after all allocations and distributions have been made. However, in the event that there are not distributions to be made to the Class B Members pursuant to Section 6.02(a)(iv), all remaining income and gain to be allocated pursuant to this Section 6.02(a)(v) shall be allocated to the Class A Members.

(b) Losses from the sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets shall be allocated as follows:

(i) To each of the Members having positive Capital Account balances in the proportion that the positive balance of each such Member bears to the positive balances of all such Members having positive Capital Account balances, until such Capital Accounts are reduced to zero; and

(ii) The balance of any loss shall be allocated 50% to the Class A Members and 50% to the Class B Members.

6.03 Qualified Income Offset and Minimum Gain Provisions.

(a) Qualified Income Offset Provision. In the event, under any circumstances, the Capital Accounts of Class A Members are unexpectedly reduced to a negative balance, by reason of an adjustment, allocation or distribution described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2) (ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6), so as to cause a Capital Account deficit for any Class A Member, then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, items of Company gain and income realized by the Company shall be specially allocated to the Class A Members in proportion to the amounts of their respective negative Capital Account balances until the portion of such negative Capital Account balances (which resulted from such adjustment, allocation or distribution) is offset in full. Any special allocations of items of income or gain pursuant to this Section 6.03(a) shall be taken into account in computing subsequent allocations of income pursuant to this Article VI so that the net amount and character of any items so allocated and the income or gain allocated to each Class A Member pursuant to this Article VI shall, to the extent possible, be equal to the net amount and character of the items that would have been allocated to each such Class A Member pursuant to the provisions of this Article VI if such unexpected adjustments, allocations or distributions had not occurred. This provision is intended as a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii) (d) and shall be construed so as to give effect to that intention.

(b) Minimum Gain Provisions. To the extent that any Member has a negative Capital Account balance as of the end of any taxable year of the Company after giving effect to any distributions made or to be made with respect to such taxable year, and such negative balance exceeds such Member's share of "minimum gain" (as defined in Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 704 of the Code) allocable to such Member as of the end of such taxable year, then an amount of income equal to such excess will be allocated to such Member. This Section 6.03(b) is intended to constitute a minimum gain charge back within the meaning of the Treasury Regulations under Section 704 of the Code and shall be construed so as to give effect to that intention. To the extent this minimum gain charge back would distort the allocations of income and losses as detailed in Section 6.03, the Managers are hereby authorized to make subsequent allocations of income and losses in any reasonable manner so as to eliminate any such distortion.

(c) The allocations of income and loss, as detailed in Article VI are intended to comply with the Treasury Regulations under Section 704 of the Code which require that allocations have substantial economic effect. The Managers are hereby authorized to adjust the allocations of income and loss in this Article VI to comport with the requirements of the Code, regulations or interpretations of the law, including the requirements of Code Section 704.

6.04 Business Expenses.

(a) The Managers shall be promptly reimbursed for any documented business expenses actually paid or incurred by any Manager at any time on behalf of the Company, including, without limitation, fees for outside legal and accounting services incurred prior to the date of this Agreement. Beginning on the Initial Closing Date and thereafter on the first day of each semi-annual reporting period, such expenses shall be billed directly to and paid by the Company when due with the exception of legal fees associated with the offering of Class A Interests, which will be paid by the Managers and deemed a Business Expense.

(b) In addition, the Company shall pay all taxes and any losses, damages and expenses related to a claim against the Company unless such claim results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Managers.

6.05 Commissions. Neither the Company, the Managers, nor any person selling Class A Interests on behalf of the Company shall be paid or awarded, directly or indirectly, any finder's fees, commissions or other compensation to any person engaged for investment advice by a potential Member as an inducement to give the potential Member investment advice.
